Lord Zabington has returned from a tour of the continent and announced that he is retiring from aggressive diplomacy. He intends to spend the rest of his life helping the disordered of all creeds, colours and nationalities.

Autumn & Winter 1905 and Spring 1906 orders are due Feb. 17, 1931. If I receive two requests, I will separate the seasons and only Autumn & Winter 1905 will be due. BUT protect yourself and send in conditions1 orders for Spring 1906!!!

Since France is now a two center power and no one wants to send in orders for that country, I regretfully (but in accordance with Claw & Fang house rules) I officially declare the Republic of France to be in permanent and total Civil Disorder.

Now a word about POSTAL Diplomacy. This game is meant to be played through the mail. I don't care how many times you players call each other and I don't mind taking orders over the phone, but some of you (who shall remain nameless) are using the phone a bit too much. I'm giving you this lecture for your own good - lately I've been spending very little time at home. Therefore I am becoming hard to reach by phone. Protect yourselves and mail some orders in. My mother and father are capable of writng down your orders but you are warned - any such orders will be used at your own risk - you, and only you, will be responsible if there is a mistake in the orders ~~you~~ that are relayed to me through my family. To avoid any hard feelings anywhere, I urge you to mail your orders in!

1979 AA is on the next page.

Summer and Fall 1908 orders are due Feb. 17, 1931.

No standby will be called for Turkey. If Mr. Baker NMR's again, Turkey will be placed in permanent Civil Disorder.

PRESS:

France to England: In my last defiant act, I screw you!

France to Germany: There, how's that for vengeance? I'd be made if I still had a unit to puppet with.

France: Flush...

GM to Sherwood: I wish all standbys were as enthusiastic as you. You did a great job.

I have decided to take option number 2. After Claw and Fang folds, I will mail the game results directly to you players. At the present time Hoof and Mouth will not become a full fledged zine. I simply have no access to a copier. I will finish out these games and maybe when they're through I'll try to start a couple more. Someday, if I find a means of getting cheap copies made, I just might try to publish a full zine. In the mean time we'll try something on a limited scale. I still have to work out the details so there's no use in dwelling on the subject here.

I think I covered everything for the games. I hope I didn't forget anything. What do you know? We don't need any standbys this time!
